TESOL Certificate Program

TESOL trains you to be a fully qualified second language teacher.

Graduates can work in Language Schools & Vocational Colleges across North America. Most of our graduate's work in Montréal, Toronto, Vancouver, Los Angeles, New York, the E.U, Asia, the Middle East, and South America.

For a practical second language teacher, the training covers all the needed theory, observation, and teaching skills. The TESOL Foundation Standard includes 50 hours of Introductory Theory and 100 hours of Teaching Practicum covering Observation, Teaching Assistance, Conversation Activities, Lesson Planning, and Real Teaching. The program explores both options of Online and In-Class teaching. Applicants with one year or more extensive teaching experience will receive Practicum Credits.

To get you started in the field, TESOL Canada's teaching experience is an asset. TESOL Canada approved Teachers Training programs are available in English TESOL, French TFSOL, Spanish TSSOL, Chinese TCSOL, Japanese TJSOL, Arabic TASOL, Russian TRSOL, Portuguese TPSOL, Turkish TTSOL, and Italian TISOL.

To teach kids and young learners, we offer TEC (Teaching English to Children) in our Advanced TESOL Standard. TEC is also available in French as EFE and Spanish as ESN.

The Advanced TESOL is a 300-hour program that offers any two options of TEC, TAE, and TBE. The study includes the Foundation plus two of the SIGs.

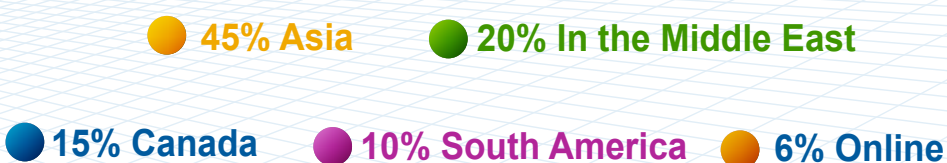

What are the benefits of TESOL at TESOL Canada?

Highly trained and experienced teachers are readily available to offer their support and guidance.

A clearly defined and organized course that includes all the online materials, and a step by step guidance to complete the course.

- Fifty hours of Online Theory Studies. (In-Class Available)
- Twenty hours of Observation, and TA.
- Eighty hours of Practical Teaching.
- TESOL Canada Recognition.
- A well-established course since 1998 (22 years).

Almost 45% of our graduates are employed in Asia, 10% in South America, 20% in the Middle East, 15% in Canada, and some in Eastern European countries. Nearly 6% of our graduates teach online with the highest revenues.

Scholarship Application

What does TESOL stand for?

- TESOL: Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages.
- TESL: Teaching English as a Second Language
- TEFL: Teaching English as a Foreign Language
- CELTA: Certificate of English Language Teaching for Adults
- TESOL is the most widely recognized qualification in North America. CELTA is more common in Europe.

What are the differences between TESOL, TESL, and CELTA?

While TESOL certifies teachers to teach ESL both in a Native Speaking Country (i.e., Canada) and a Non-Native Speaking Region (i.e., China), TESL is to teach in a native environment, and TEFL is to teach in a non-native country.

TESOL carries the most updated methods and allows teachers to teach ESL to Adults, Business People, Academic Language Learners (IELTS), and Children TEC.

CELTA is to teach English to Adults only. Additionally, TESOL has been updated with hybrid methods of online technology while CELTA remains in classical teaching modes. TESOL offers continuing education credits toward graduate university studies of Masters or Ph.D. in TESOL or Education. As a vocational program, CELTA is not available in graduate schools toward Ph.D. or Masters.

What is in the course?

The entire TESOL Foundation is 150 hours, and the Advanced TESOL is 300 hours. TESOL Foundation offers 50 hours of theory and 100 hours of Practical Teaching.

It includes:

- How to teach the four language skills: speaking, listening, reading, writing, grammar, and vocabulary covering theory & practice.

- Classroom management: To effectively teach in a classroom, all factors such as pace, timing, use of resources and material, the classroom's environment, cultural issues, and the learners' management shall be considered.

- Lesson planning: How to effectively plan lessons to maximize student learning.

- Conversational teaching: The skills and strategies to become an effective conversational teacher.

- Teaching methodologies: A review of classical methods leads to understanding the most recognized current methods and pedagogical approaches. ; the Communicative Language Teaching (CLT), the TPR, Online Teaching Modes, MOOC, and Hybrid Studies.

- IELTS/ TOEFL/TOEIC: The opportunity to learn about these critical tests and to experience them live.

- TAE Teaching Academic Subjects allows you to become an IELTS examiner and a TOEFL teacher.

- Discipline: How to deal with difficult classroom situations: especially with children.

- Job-Hunting: Practical information on how to find jobs in Ontario, Québec, B.C, the USA, Europe, Asia, and the Middle East.

Job referrals are available by Education Canada Network at www.educationcanada.com.

An aerial photograph of a city skyline at sunset. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm, golden glow over the buildings and water. The CN Tower is the most prominent feature on the right side of the image. The city is densely packed with skyscrapers and residential buildings. In the foreground, there's a body of water with some boats and a marina. The sky is a mix of orange, yellow, and light blue. A semi-transparent white box is overlaid on the bottom left of the image, containing text.

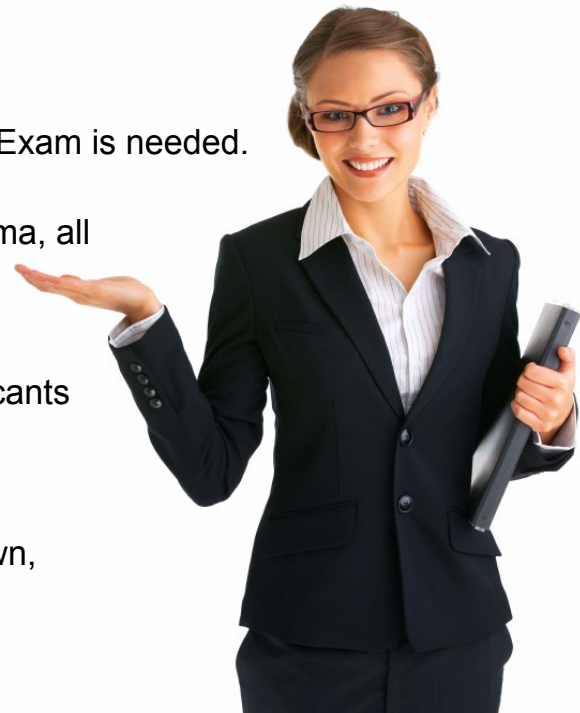

Can I teach two languages?

Yes, as practical teaching skills and pedagogical theories are the same, TESOL Canada prepares you to teach any of the available 15 languages. Language Proficiency and Qualifying Exams are required in both languages.

For a bilingual license, you must complete all exams, assignments, and practicum in both languages. When the cost of the first certification is at full rate, the second program is 50% reduced. Generally, the second choice can be in French, Arabic, Spanish, Japanese, Italian, Portuguese, Chinese, Korean, Turkish, Russian, German, Urdu, Farsi, or Japanese.

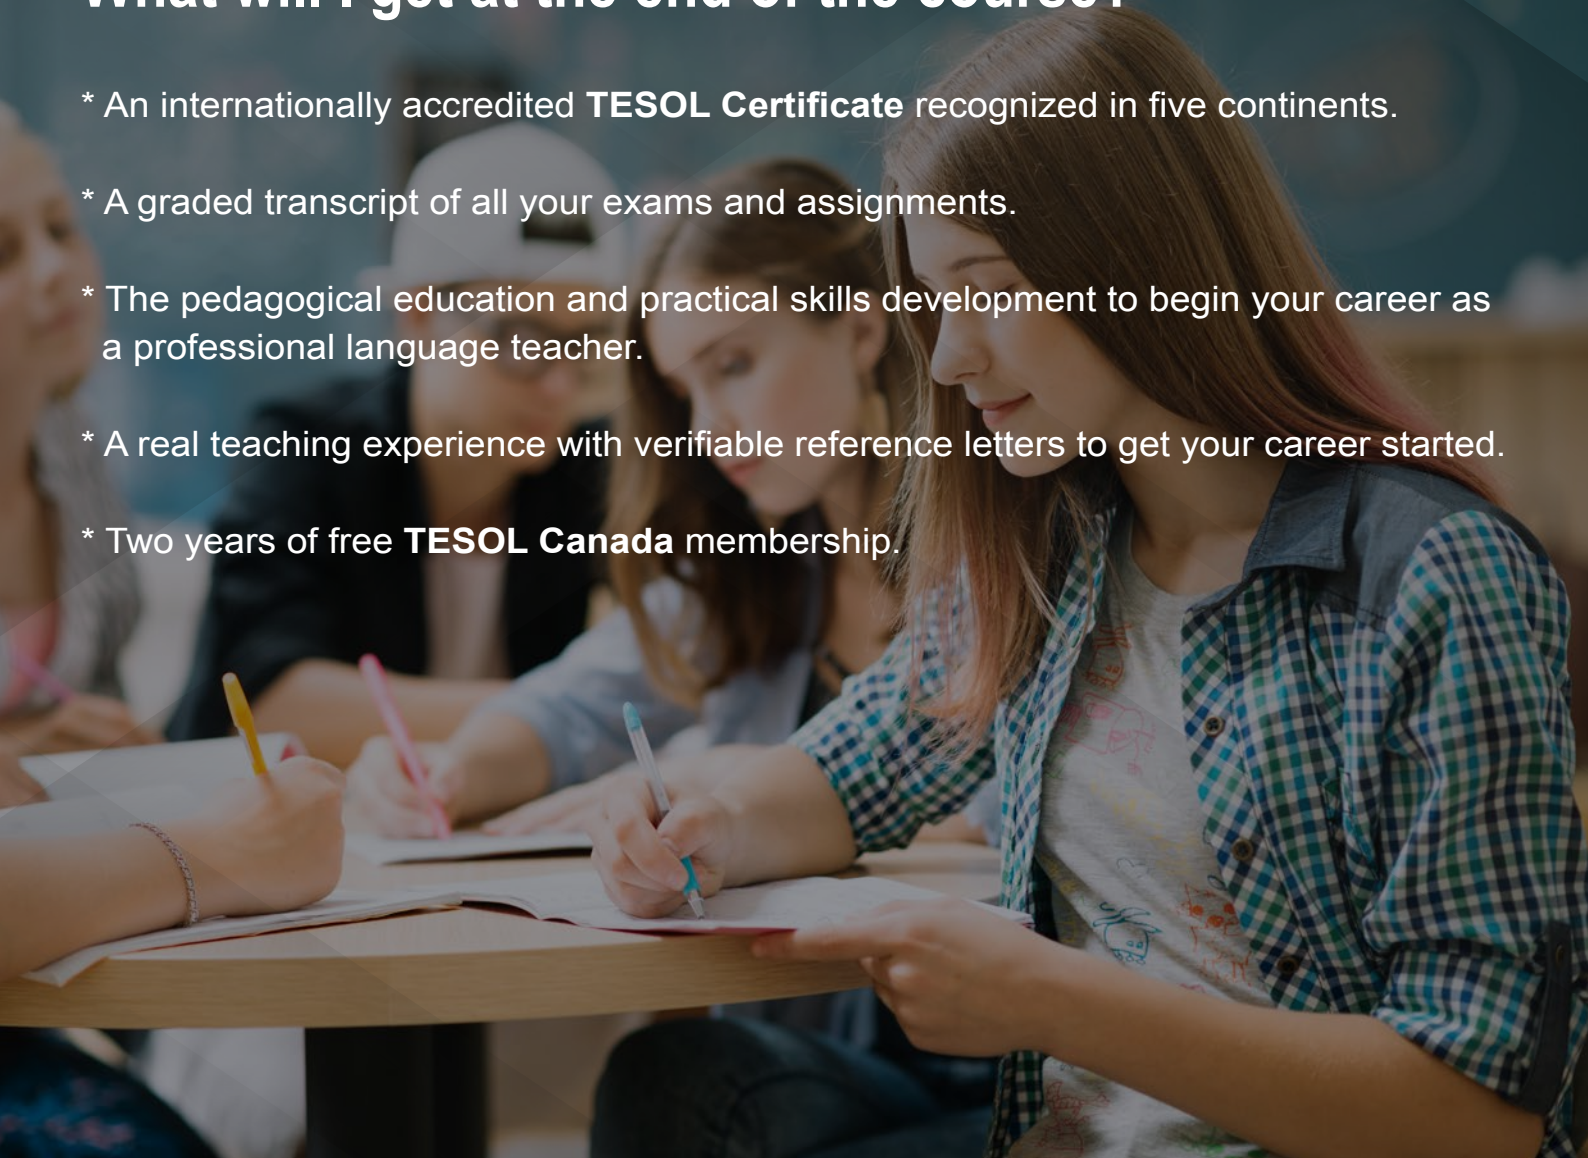

What are the pre-requisites?

- Good command of English and the second language IELTS score of 7.5 or 80% in TELPE.
- For a Bilingual Permit, the Second Language Proficiency Exam is needed.
- For the Advanced TESOL Certificate and the TCCT Diploma, all candidates must have Bachelor degrees or higher.
- The TESOL Foundation program will accept mature applicants with high school diplomas along with IELTS or TELPE.
- Specific conditions may apply to highly experienced, known, and talented teachers.

What will I get at the end of the course?

- * An internationally accredited TESOL Certificate recognized in five continents.
- * A graded transcript of all your exams and assignments.
- * The pedagogical education and practical skills development to begin your career as a professional language teacher.
- * A real teaching experience with verifiable reference letters to get your career started.
- * Two years of free TESOL Canada membership.

The student in the foreground is a young woman with long dark hair, wearing a grey sweater, focused on her laptop. Behind her, a young man and a young woman are also working.

How do I apply?

Step 1: Register ($300 Registration Fee) and make an appointment to write the TELPE Exam or present your IELTS scores.

Step 2: When you come in to write your TELPE, bring a copy of your CV. Online TELPE may be available.

Step 3: Pass an online or in-person TESOL Qualifying Interview.

Step 4: Pay your Tuition Fees and get started on the schedule.

Depending on your selected program, tuitions are different.
